

REINHOLD JEWELERS

-ARTE PUERTORRIQUEÑO-

LETTER

THE HEARTBEAT OF A PEOPLE CAN BE FELT THROUGH THEIR ART WHETHER IT IS AN ART OF PROTEST, CELEBRATION OR DESPAIR. IN PUERTO RICO, IT IS A HYMN TO ITS CULTURAL MIXTURE, AN ATTENTION TO ITS ECLECTIC HISTORY AS WELL AS RECOGNITION OF THE BEAUTY OF THE ISLAND'S AMAZING CULTURAL ROOTS. THIS HAS RESULTED IN AN OFTEN IDENTIFIABLE, VERY PUERTO RICAN WAY OF EXPRESSION.

Allora y Calzadilla
Forecast, 2012
Digital C-print
41.3" x 27.5" (104.9 x 69.85 cm)

In Puerto Rican art, there is no camouflage. Its art is filled with the possibilities that life holds as well as its anguish. Whether in the powerful force of Arnaldo Roche or colorful style of Sofía Maldonado, the works of generations of artists reflect the longing, the passion and independent thought of a very unique island. Today a new wave of young artists such as Jesús 'Bubu' Negrón and Radamés 'Juni' Figueroa have exploded on the international field identifying Puerto Rico in art fairs and prestigious galleries and museums. Their discerning eye as well as their sense of humor reflect the dichotomy of living on a magical island filled with amazing rainbows and unexpected storms. In this, the 14th edition of the REINHOLD HOLIDAY BOOK, it is with immense pride and love that we share the artistic talent of our beautiful island, wishing you and your loved ones a joyous Holiday Season and New Year. — Marie Helene Morrow

Carlos Betancourt- Walter Otero Contemporary Art Gallery
Amulet For Light I (gold), 2012
Color photograph
Editions: 72" x 109" and 12 1/2" x 19"

Carlos Betancourt- Walter Otero Contemporary Art Gallery
Re- Collections, 2008
Print on Fine Paper,
16" x 16"

NO.14

www.reinholdjewelers.com